II. Lisa motioned to approve January minutes, Josh seconded and all were in favor

III. Agenda Topics

1. Calendar - February and March calendars were discussed with the focus on winter sports playoffs and the beginning of spring sports. FFA week with lots of activities will be next week. March 1st will be suicide prevention assembly with Caleb Campbell.

2. Counseling – Chad has been busy getting college classes set up and ready for the following year. Cosmetology is planning on starting in the fall and they are still working on welding and plumbing options.

3. Fee Schedule 2022-2023 - Mr. Stewart went over the changes in fee schedule from the 2021-22 school year to the 22-23 school year. Changes are as follows:

SW Tech classes fee $20 from $25

Drill food $200 from $300, split uniform & $300 choreography, less possible fundraisers $500

Cheer food $200 from $300

Less possible fundraisers $200

Cross Country added $50 summer camp fee

Baseball hotels $50 from $40

Theater food $100 from $50

Wrestling clothing/duffel $80 from $25 (once every 4 years)

FFA state dues $20 from $15

FCCLA state dues $15 from $12

4. Activities

a. State Drill Team - Won state wahoo

b. New Sports – Girls Golf this spring is a no go due to lack of interest from girls

5. Discussion Items - Accreditation stakeholder interviews will be the week of March 14th. The council will be interviewed on March 15th. Trust land funds had an extra $10,000 that was unable to be used due to no one applying for the para position and assemblies that were canceled due to covid. We plan on rolling those funds over to next year's funds.
